

Joseph Laska, Partner, Manatt, Phelps, & Phillips, LLP

Joe Laska is a Partner in the San Francisco office of Manatt. He defends managed health care plans and insurance companies in complex state and federal litigation, arbitration, and administrative disputes, with particular emphasis on class actions, ERISA litigation, and the evolving area of mental health care. His clients include several of the nation's leading health care plans and insurance companies. Joe works with these clients to navigate complex litigation, trials, class actions and settlements, regulatory disputes and negotiations, and appeals.